

When sailing the high seas Pirates like to kill their time with a little game of Parlay! Bet your stash of rum and gold that your hand will be the winner. Beg, bargain and steal your way to be the richest pirate on deck. The rules are simple, until you break them.

PLACE YOUR BETS

Each player will place bets on whether they think their hand will win (Aye) or lose (Nay). Discussion and Bribery is encourage to convince other players to raise the pot. Each player reveals their cards simultaneously face up on the table. The player with the highest number or the Parlay! card wins the pot.

88 Cards

2 Betting Circles

80 Rum Barrels

120 Gold Coins

Gold = 5 Points
Rum - 1 Point

PARLAY!

The Parlay! card is the Trump Card. It automatically wins the pot. The player of the Parlay card must shout "Parlay!" when revealing the card. If more than one player plays the Parlay! card at the same time then those players lose and the pot gets split amongst all remaining players.

GAME END

The game ends when all 11 cards have been played. You may choose to deal another round and continue playing or you may choose to tally up your spoils and declare a winner. The winner with the most points wins.

DRUNKEN PIRATES EXPANSION! (GREAT FOR PARTIES!)
The Pirates got drunk and forgot the rules. This expansions doubles the number of Paylay cards in play and each time a parlay card is played draw a card from the drunken pirates deck to determine the rules for that round.

*Art used is for placeholder only